We are delighted to present this superb four-bedroom family townhouse located in the prestigious Barnton area of Edinburgh. Situated within an exclusive development of only 3 properties. Each house offers an exceptional level of design, style, quality and space that reflects their character. Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the standard and finish of the property as it is of the highest quality. The attention to detail is evident throughout and has resulted in making a perfect family home. The property is further enhanced by solar panels, aiding the heating of the water and running a more energy efficient household.
